PAPERBOYS

The Paperboys is a globe-touring sextet that, in a single set, can be counted on to stomp through Celtic reels, traditional Mexican folk, fiddle tunes, New Orleans brass band music, classic pop songcraft, bluegrass, and even a philosophical waltz or two, before bringing it all home with a Latino/West African singalong. The Paperboys has been converting full concert halls of indifferent strangers into devoted fans for the last 30 years. Welcome to the fan club!

MATT PATERSHUK

Matt Patershuk is a singer and songwriter from La Glace, Alberta (near Grande Prairie). He values simplicity, but also loves to incorporate the small details that bring a story to life, and make it relatable. Though his songs aren't devoid of metaphor, you'll not be left guessing about what the song is about when you're done listening. You'll listen to songs about folks trying; they give it a good go. Results vary, but all of them are better off for the attempt.

KEN LAVIGNE

Recognized early for the outstanding timbre of his lyric tenor voice as well as the ease and agility with which he sings, Ken Lavigne has now created a show in which the Italian Tenor and the Singing Cowboy collide in "Spaghetti Western". A foot tapping, pasta twirling fiesta where the passion of 'O Sole Mio' tangoes with the twang of 'Take Me Home, Country Roads'. Well, saddle up because you're in for a night of the unexpected.

OVER THE MOON

Over the Moon is the very apt name for Craig Bignell and Suzanne Levesque's duo. They were indeed over the moon a few years ago when they met, and they still adore each other - partners in life as well as in music. After discovering their near perfect blend of voices, often moving people to tears upon hearing them sing together, Over the Moon was born. Simple and sweet, their music and lyrics have a common thread that speaks of the Canadian west.

There will be few people you feel you get to know through their music more than Stagger.
