TRAVIS DOLTER

November 9, 2025

Travis Dolter is a dynamic country music artist known for his high-energy performances, witty sense of humour, and engaging stage presence. Backed by his talented band, Travis delivers a blend of story-filled originals and cover songs spanning from the 50's to the present day, ensuring each performance feels fresh and exciting. From belting out heartfelt ballads to rocking upbeat anthems, Travis's show encompasses it all.

PETER & THE WOLVES

January 11, 2026

Peter and the Wolves is a fresh hot rockabilly group from Calgary, Alberta. Singer/Songwriter Howlin' Pete has been singing the jailhouse guitar with his wolves across Canada inspired by the great era of 1950's rock and roll such as Buddy Holly, Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, and Bill Haley & his Comets. Exceptionally good country rock that channels the 50's while sounding oh so modern. Music that makes you feel good.

JIGJAM

March 22, 2026

Jigjam has been described as 'The best Irish band in bluegrass'. These lads have been hailed as "Ireland's answer to New Grass Revival". Jigjam made its Grand Ole Opry Debut in Nashville on March 2023 to critical acclaim, receiving a standing ovation from a sold-out crowd on country music's biggest stage. 'Foot stomping', 'high energy', 'badassery' is what you're in for when you see this musical powerhouse live in concert.

THE HELLO DARLINS

December 14, 2025

The Hello Darlins are referred to as a "One-Band American Festival". The Hello Darlins are some of Canada's most in-demand professional session and touring musicians who came together to forge a distinct hybrid of traditional country, gospel, and blues. The songwriting, harmonies, musical firepower and unique sound they have created together, makes for a joyful and memorable event that every music fan needs to experience.

JOHN HEWITT & THE NEW AMERICANS

With special guest
Abigayle Oakley

February 22, 2026

John Hewitt is an amalgamation of his inspirations ranging from John Prine, Bob Dylan, Neil Young, and Tom Petty. Melding poetry with melody and backed by the New Americans, John's history of studying the masters shines in their stage show. A master storyteller and sometimes a borderline comedian, his stage show has been an Alberta staple for years. John's music is a force and the New Americans are his ship.

TWILIGHT TIME

April 12, 2026

Twilight Time is a tribute to The Platters and Doo-Wop. Twilight Time celebrates the soulful music of the legendary group, The Platters. They will take you back to the glory of the 50's, capturing the unique vocal style and the delicately balanced harmonies of The Platters, songs like "Only You", "Great Pretender", and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes". They will also bring back the biggest hits of the Doo-Wop era, with songs like "Lollipop", "Duke of Earl", and so, so many more.
